

Learn. Connect. Grow.

Opportunities at Wood for new graduates

Do you love to think of new ways of solving a problem? We do too. We bring fresh ideas and different perspectives to every project. We offer a range of opportunities in locations around the world for employees. We tackle a wide range of complex challenges; sharing new and innovative ways of working to enhance the performance of a number of our customers.

Who are we?

Wood is a global leader in the delivery of project, engineering and technical services in energy, industry, and the built environment.

Countries:

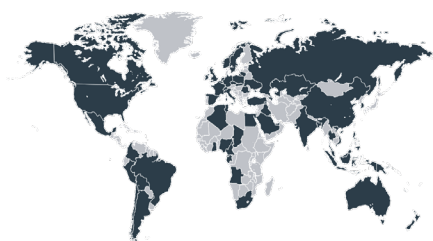

Employees:

60+ 60,000

Revenue:

$11 billion

Where are we?

What we do?

We provide a number of products and services including:

- Oil & gas
- Refining
- Power & process
- Clean Energy
- Environment & infrastructure
- Manufacturing
- Marine & defence
- Chemical
- Mining & minerals
- Infrastructure
- Water resources

New graduate benefits

- Professional membership fees reimbursed annually (ie., APEGA)
- Career development planning
- Mentorship program
- Professional development assistance

“Wood provides an environment that allows me, as a part of the new generation of engineers, to grow and foster my own professional connections and development. A culture that values care, commitment, courage and diversity – This is Wood.”

Patricia Chen, graduate electrical engineer

Location:

Edmonton/Calgary, Alberta

Engineering opportunities available

- Structural engineering
- Civil engineering
- Instrumentation engineering
- Electrical engineering
- Piping engineering
- Mechanical engineering
- Pipeline engineering
- Process engineering

Ideal candidates

- Bachelors degree (minimum requirement)
- December 2019/ May 2020 graduates
- A desire to learn and work in a dynamic, deadline-driven environment

Total rewards and benefits:

- Market competitive compensation package
- Modified work schedule available
- Group RRSP program (with Company matching)
- Comprehensive benefits plan
- Corporate employee discounts

Exact benefits will depend on your role, type of employment agreement, and business unit.

How to Apply:

To apply and/or to find out more about life at Wood visit our Alberta Early Careers at Wood's website:

<https://woodplc.com/alberta-early-careers>

www.woodplc.com